IWAP is a program designed to assist injured workers with the workers' compensation process. We are here to help injured workers with the confusing workers' compensation system.

What is the purpose of an injured worker advocacy program?

To help injured workers understand the workers' compensation process; getting questions answered and resolving issues.

What kind of services does IWAP provide?

We are here to answer questions regarding disability benefits, medical treatment, return-to-work issues, modified duty, rehabilitation, arbitration, settlement, and any other questions that may come up during the claim process.

What does "NO COST" to you really mean?

Exactly that! This is a no cost program to all injured workers. Injured workers will not be billed and no percentage or fees will be deducted from any settlement or benefits whatsoever.

How do injured workers begin the IWAP process?

Simply call our toll free number 1-855-ASSISTWC.

Email questions to help@wciwap.com.

What hours are IWAP available to injured workers?
